

My Footprint
of consciousness,
ideas and thoughts.

published
by
The Internet.

I write this for NO ONE.
This the book of my thoughts,
ideas, ... my abstraction
and we myself are not dictated by the aestheticism of letters & words.

None of this is supposed to make sense - except to me.

This is a picture of
my ideas, my inventions & my footprint of conscious.

This is the purest view of me. No pose.
Just my thoughts in writing. It's def scary to put my thoughts out there. But, ✓
who are we without them?

Welcome! to who I
truly am. - an abstraction.
